

Team Building Proven Process

1

THE 29

Most companies ask for a half hour of your time. We only ask for 29. After that, it's your choice to continue.

2

THE PLAN

We spend as much time as you need to plan the experience that best fits your team and your goals.

3

THE EXPERIENCE

All you need to do is show up and enjoy the event. Everything will be handled and ready to go.

4

THE MOVEMENT

Sustain the results with your newly improved team. A follow up conference call will set you up for continued success.

We strive to #BeABuffalo and help our clients do the same. We're passionate about discovering, engaging, and growing leaders. You'll love your event or you pay nothing.

Our Core Values

1. Be a Buffalo
2. Uncommon Leadership
3. Relentless Growth
4. Own Success

Let us unite your leaders and team members using carefully planned half-day or full-day sessions, focused on providing you an unforgettable team experience that is guaranteed to make a difference.

"I cannot thank both of you enough for a fantastic team building night. I am still hearing people talking about it! Not only did you both energize my team for the week but you gave them the extra push to finish out the year strong. Thanks again."

- Kathryn Chase, Chase Plastics

"We had a blast, learned lots, and really connected as a team. When the time came for me to plan another teambuilding event for the recent round of new hires, I immediately thought of CultureShoc."

- Rana Schiff, Center of Recruiting Excellence

It's team building that doesn't suck. All you have to do is show up.
